REMARKABLE CURE

Effect by the Science of Osteo-Magnetic Healing.

"I believe it is my duty to write this, not because I want to see my name in print, for the truth is that is the object of my course, but I believe that it is my duty to suffering humanity to let them know that there is a cure and to let the person of G. W. C. Jones, the Osteo-Magnetic Healer.

"Soon after his opening his rooms in this city, being totally unacquainted with him and having heard of some remarkable cures that he had accomplished, having a combination of the leading physicians of Wichita, without relief, I went to him for treatment. For months had not had a good night's sleep. For six months I had been troubled with an excessive discharge peculiar to my sex. My appetite was so poor that I could eat only broths and the most easily digested food. I was blind, practically, in the right eye. I was very deaf in the right ear.

I was paralyzed in the left arm to such an extent that it was unsafe for me to attempt to carry a cup of coffee. I had the most excruciating pains in the small of my back and I also had the most intense headaches.

"After taking one treatment from the Healer my female trouble disappeared and has never returned and I was enabled to enjoy a good night's rest, something I had not done for months and months. I slept so sound that my son returning home at 10 o'clock was almost unable to awake me. After these treatments I was able to thread a needle with the assistance of my right eye. At the end of five treatments I was able to use my left arm in doing a large washing; and from the first my appetite improved, my digestion became perfect, and after taking only twelve treatments I left the office feeling my nervous system all toned up, pains gone and feeling in all respects stronger and healthier than I had for years.

"I want to recommend him to all those suffering.

BY MRS. HIGGINSON

Delightful Musicals Given for Mr. and Mrs. Smyth.

OLD FOLKS RECEPTION

Mrs. Jewett's Parties--Kismet Club Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Higginson entertained last Wednesday evening in a most delightful musical given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smyth. The large music room and parlors were filled with a very congenial company of musicians and lovers of music, many of whom had not before had the opportunity of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Smyth since their return from abroad. Small pink programs were distributed, containing numbers to be given. Owing to a severe cold and hoarseness Mr. Smyth was unable to appear in his numbers, but Mrs. Smyth sang several selections in his place. Mrs. Smyth opened the program with a piano solo, "The Two Skylarks," by Leschitzky, which was beautiful in interpretation and execution and called forth a very hearty encore to which Mrs. Smyth responded with a theme for the left hand by Pirkheimer, Miss Larimer then sang a double number, "A Red, Red Rose," Hastings, and "Lullaby" by Vannah, both of which were sung in excellent voice and expression. A baritone solo, "The Art Mine All," by Bradsley, was sung with much feeling and in good voice by Mr. Casper Haynes, who responded to an encore in "My Wee Bird," by Smyth. Mrs. Smyth again delighted the company with two piano solos, "Nocturne," by Grieg, and "Serenade," by Grondahl, kindly responding to an encore in the beautiful Chopin D flat prelude. The vocal numbers given by Mrs. Smyth were two German songs "Die Prinzessin," by Grieg, and "Helden-Rosen," by Schubert, also a duet with violin obligato, played by Mr. Charles Higginson. Mrs. Smyth's pronunciation of the German language is perfect and the selections were rendered in a very artistic manner. Light refreshments were served late in the evening, in which Mrs. Higginson was assisted by Miss Mable Ayers and Miss Lizzie Roach. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. H. Imboden, Mr. and Mrs. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. C. Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. R. Murdoch, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. F. Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Lehmann, Mr. and Mrs. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Braeken, Mr. and Mrs. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Slicker, Mr. and Mrs. H. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Walden, Mr. and Mrs. Keach, Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Clapp, Mr. and Mrs. Homrighous, Mr. and Mrs. H. McClung, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Davidson, Mrs. F. Smyth, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. D. RECEPTION TO THE OLD FOLK.

Rev. Dr. Stutz, pastor of the First M. E. church, and Mrs. Stutz, gave a reception to a number of the old folks who are members of the class in this city, Friday afternoon, at the parsonage on North Topeka avenue. About sixteen persons were present as guests, their ages averaging 75 years. The oldest person present was 85 years of age. The afternoon was spent in relating reminiscences of early life and was decidedly interesting. A letter of greeting was read from Grandfather Graves, a member of this church, who is at present visiting his daughter at Mound City, Mo. He is 85 years old. He is the father of Mrs. Prof. Marriager of this city. Refreshments were served and the afternoon was a most enjoyable one.

SERIES OF WHIST PARTIES.

Mrs. E. B. Jewett, Mrs. O. D. Kirk and Mrs. Gerald Volk gave two afternoon whist parties for the ladies at the home of Mrs. Jewett on Riverside Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, which are spoken of as most delightful events. At the Thursday afternoon party the honors at whist went to Mrs. Howard Whislock and Mrs. Wood. On Friday afternoon Mrs. Church and Mrs. Harding won the prizes. Another enjoyable party was given at Mrs. Jewett's home on Friday evening for lady friends and their husbands by Mrs. Jewett and Mrs. Kirk. Whist was again the predominant feature of entertainment and was entered into with much zeal. At this party the honors were won by Mrs. W. P. Throckmorton and Mr. Gerald Volk.

KISMET CLUB DANCE.

Thursday evening at Solgwick music hall, the Kismet club gave the first of a series of delightful dances, which it has scheduled for the winter's pleasure. The crowd was large and appreciative of the pleasures of the ballroom. Prof. Blume's orchestra furnished music from the stage, which was set with the prettiest of hot house flowers. Punch was served between the dances in one of the reception rooms. Those present from a distance were Miss Jane Miller, Columbia, Ohio; Miss Stella Aldenderfer, Miss Ethel Neiderlander of St. Louis; Miss Mabel Hartman of Leavenworth, and Dr. Fred Lawrence of Augusta. Among others present were Messrs. and Mesdames Thornton, Sarawant, J. D. Houston, C. H. Smyth, Walter Jones, John Bryan, Charles Englehart, Fred Aley, J. S. Newman, Ralph Millison, Harry Caldwell, John Kelly, Ben Garland, Misses Laura, Gohagan, Geneva Jorjiva, Maudie Burke, Ada Allen, Anna Brown, Myrtle Hinton, Lillian Lewis, Myrtle Reese, Blanche Chandler, Maude Pratt, Harriette Tanner, Byrd Gilmore, Daisy Lynch, Florence Gilmore, Maude Rix, Olive Magill; Messrs. Jesse McClure, J. Elmer Reese, Bruce M. Priddy, Oliver Hargy, Sid Chapman, Dr. Mansfield, Tom Kelso, Allen Davengrove, I. Goldsmith, Frank Russell, Dr. J. Z. Hoffman, Vermillion Harris, Robert Norris, Rob Dennis, P. G. Hockaday, Charles Priestley, Tom Frost, Roy Allen, Charles Topping, Claude Stanley, Ben Anawalt, Robert Tormington, Paul Eaton, Deles Woods, O. B. Sticker, — Barwick, James Moxley, Dr. Rex.

MISS MAUDE DAVIS.

The E. O. T. Whist club met Thursday evening with Miss Maude Davis, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dunn on North Topeka avenue. The members present

Farm and Health Saved.

Orrville, O., May 3, 1899.
My husband and I used two 25c packages of Thedford's Black-Draught and not quite one bottle of Wine of Cardui. It has done us much good, as it is quick in doing its work, and yet it is mild and pleasant. I am thankful there is something in the world to help the human family without paying out every cent to a doctor. They would soon take our small farm.

Mrs. D. N. FLICKINGER.

Wine of Cardui and its companion medicine—Thedford's Black-Draught—brings health and happiness to thousands of homes where there has been only suffering and disappointment. Since these medicines were introduced you don't have to spend half of your income for doctors' bills. There are many sick women paying physicians $10.00 to do less than a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui would do. "Female troubles" can only receive a small portion of a regular physician's attention. Wine of Cardui is made for the single purpose of curing quickly and permanently all the derangements of the womanly organs, including falling of the womb, irregular and painful menstruation, and leucorrhoea. It eradicates pains in the head, back and limbs at monthly periods.

It can be had at your drug store. If you get it to-day, you will see a great change for the better within a week. It is relieving thousands every month. It will relieve you. For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wine of Cardui

I have used four bottles of Wine of Cardui and am now on my fifth. When I began taking Wine of Cardui I was not able to walk to a neighbor's house without resting on the way. Now I can plow and hoe and do as good work as I ever could.

were: Misses Maude Davis, Harriette Wells, Helen Taylor, Jean Dryan, Agnes Davidson, Nellie Jackson; Messrs. Dr. C. G. Adams, Ed. Brewer, Frank Kessler, Henry Grother, Alex. Shields, Frank Christman. Prizes were won by Miss Wells and Dr. Adams. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. McNaughten, after which Mr. Shields favored the club with several vocal selections.

SOUTH END WHIST CLUB.

The South End Whist club was royally entertained by Mrs. Reynolds, at her home on South Fanny avenue, Friday afternoon. Members of the club present were: Mrs. E. L. Whitlock, Mrs. Lon Williams, Mrs. Whitcomb, Mrs. Caton, Mrs. Banks, Mrs. E. A. Neuman, Mrs. E. Drake, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Smythe. The visiting ladies present were: Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Rudolph, Mrs. Frank Gurnay. At 5 o'clock a delicate and delicious lunch was served in a most charming manner. The honors were won by Mrs. Frank Gurnay and Mrs. B. L. Whitlock.

PROGRESSIVE WOMEN OF AMERICA.

The December meeting of Circle No. 6, P. W. A., was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Meredith. After roll call had been responded to, by original quotations, furnished by the hostess, and the minutes of the preceding meeting had been read, three applicants for membership were voted on and received.

ed. The topic of the day was "Gift-giving." Granted that it has become a farce, how may we who have helped to make it so, best exert our influence to bring about a change for the better? The president, Mrs. Lenore Groves, introduced the subject by the reading of a timely article about the changed condition of the Christmas saint, who is aging and grieving that the spirit of the gift-giving people is tainted with bitterness. Gifts are given to pay off indebtedness and not in the spirit of the Christ who gave himself for the world. Mrs. Meredith read a paper on the topic. Among the many good things she said was that "We should begin to train the young parrots as it is hard to train an old one." And that does seem to be the only solution of "how to bring about a change for the better." Many good thoughts were brought out, but there was
